2.30 - 3.30 pm
Panorama

“The expectations of Europeans in terms of mobility. Infrastructures: an overview”, preview presentation of the results of a study carried out by Ipsos-BCG.

3.30 - 4.30 pm
Round table n°1

How can we develop the infrastructure projects that answer the needs expressed by Europeans?

“The strengths of public-private partnerships”
Testimonies of Pedro Marques, Portuguese minister of Planning and Infrastructure,
Patrick Jeantet, CEO - SNCF Réseau
and Christophe Pélissié du Rausas, Administrator - LISEA.

“The vision of the private corporate sector and investors”
Ralph Eley - Director - Asset Management - Allianz,
Manuel Cary - Partner - Transport infrastructure Investment company.

“Combining resources: 12 recommendations on how to finance transport infrastructures in Europe”

“The European system: what tools for infrastructure projects?”
Jean-Eric Paquet - Deputy Secretary-General - European Commission.
“The emergence of projects: a factor of effectiveness, an asset for economic growth in Europe”

Julian Nuñez - President - Seopan.

“Concessions, long term commitment and resilience”

Panayotis Papanikolas - Director general - Olympia Odos - CEO - Gefyra.

“The concession, a model for the future?”

Xavier Bezançon - General delegate - EGF-BTP.

Debate with the guests

4.30 - 5.15 pm

Round table n°2

The infrastructures of the future and their contribution to new mobilities

“The new services: a shared reality”

Frédéric Mazzella - CEO & Founder - BlaBlaCar.

“The new mobilities and their consequences”

Nikolaus Lang - Mobility expert.

“The adapting networks and services to new needs in the 3.0 era”

Prof. Torsten R. Böger - Director - Association for Transport Infrastructure Financing (VIFG).

“The contribution of new technologies”

Nicolas Sekkaki - CEO - IBM France.

“How much finance and innovation in infrastructures: towards new models?”

André Autrand - CEO & Founder – La Compagnie Financière des Infrastructures.

“The European commission and the development of new mobilities”

Debate with the guests

5.15 - 5.30 pm

How to improve the efficiency of the relationship between public and private decision-makers?

Xavier Huillard - CEO - VINCI Group.

5.30 - 5.45 pm

Conclusions

Ambroise Fayolle - Vice-president - European Investment Bank.

If you have any questions or for further information, please contact the secretariat at the following address: colloque@infrastructuresdufutur.com.